

Lakeside Community Council Meeting Minutes prepared by Keith Brown

September 16th, 2008 – This special meeting was called in place of the regular September meeting, which was previously scheduled for the last Tuesday of September.

Council Members Present: Gregg Schoh, Keith Brown, Janet Heinze, and David Anderson.

See attendance sheet for community members present.

Note that this meeting was a specially scheduled meeting noticed with proper public notice from the county. The special meeting was scheduled to meet county planning deadlines for the proposal listed below.

Meeting called to order by Gregg Schoh at 7:08pm.

Only official business was review of the R-1 Zoning proposal for the area described as the Fish Hatchery District. Andrew Hagemeyer' (sp?) was present from the county planning office to present the proposal.

Proposal was presented and discussion ensued on the proposal with several comments both in support of the proposal and against the proposal from the community, council members, and the county planning office.

It was moved by Council Member Keith Brown that the R-1 Zoning proposal be supported by the Council due to overwhelming public support for the proposal with a suggestion to the planning board that R-2 also be considered as a viable option for all or a portion of the area under consideration. The motion was seconded by David Anderson. The motion carried by unanimous vote.

Meeting adjourned 8:30pm.
